Travel Information

We recommend that you fly into Lyon-Saint Exupéry Airport. From U.S., Canada, and some other countries you can fly into any major European hub and from there get a connecting flight to Lyon. From Lyon-Saint Exupéry Airport take the tram/train called the Rhone Express (a red train) to Lyon-Part-Dieu train station. Follow the many signs for the Rhone Express in the airport. Red Kiosques to buy tickets are before you exit airport. We are emphasizing Lyon-Part-Dieu train station (Gare in French) because there are several train stations in Lyon and you have to come to Gare de Lyon-Part-Dieu in order to take the train to Le Puy. The same applies for St Etienne-Chateaucieux train station. The city of St Etienne has four train stations and the correct one for you, should you need to transfer trains, is St Etienne-Chateaucieux. You will not change stations in St Etienne, only trains if you do not have a direct train to Le Puy from Paris or Lyon-Part-Dieu.

The official website for the French railways (SNCF) may be helpful in your travel planning:

Holy Ground: A Pilgrimage of the Heart: A Guided Retreat at the Heart of our CSJ Foundation

Begins on Friday, June 30, 6:00 p.m. with dinner and ends 11:00 a.m. on Friday, July 7

A pilgrimage is a journey to a place where God has shown grace. St Ignatius of Loyola encourages us to return to places of grace and consolation, to be open to new grace. When we make a pilgrimage we do not always receive what we seek but we always receive what we need.

Le Puy was holy ground even before our sisters came together, blessed by places of pilgrimage and prayer and by Earth herself. We will gather each morning for a guided meditation through our early history and spirituality and for quiet time. Each afternoon we will journey as pilgrims to the holy sites in Le Puy: Notre Dame Cathedral, Rocher St Michel, Eglise du College, as well as to our first kitchen, the market square, and the lace centers. We will also have a day trip to Lyon to visit the archives and Heritage Room. In each place we will have time to walk, to reflect, to journal.

Le Puy has long been a starting place for the Camino, the pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostella. Those who wish may gather to watch the film The Way as an evening
